2 Escapes From Eldridge Captured After Bay Theft

Two young fugitives from the Sonoma State Home at Eldridge were arrested at Bodega Bay yesterday after looting the Smith Bros.' home.

The pair, David Barber and Jack Caldaire, both 18, escaped from the state institution last Monday. They were booked at the county jail last night en route back to Eldridge after being picked up by Deputy Sheriff Ray Weaver following a tip from Bodega bay residents.

The youths ransacked the old home place of the Smith brothers, taking a diamond, ruby ring, two suits of clothes, other articles of wearing apparel, flashlights, a fountain pen, soap, coffee, and tea belonging to Ernest and Eddie Smith.

Wearing of the stolen clothes led to the pair's capture. Donna Smith, relative of the theft victims, recognized one of the suits the youths were wearing while walking on the beach. Deputy Sheriff Weaver, investigating the robbery, was notified, and followed the pair to Louie's Coast Camp where the arrest was made.
